3. CITY ZOO

Words & Music © Fran Avni

We're going on a trip to the city zoo,
To visit all the animals there,
Some have fur and some have feathers,
Some have skin and some have hair.
No matter what the weather,
They all live together,
They all live together in the city zoo.

Oh we're off to the zoo in a great big bus,
To see the happy hippy hippopotamus,
In the summer heat he tries to keep cool,
In the blue blue water at the bottom of the pool,
He's laughing and splashing and having fun,
And he lives with his friends in the city zoo.

In the monkey house gorillas orangutans and apes,
Spit pits from green and purple grapes,
The chimpanzee high up in the tree,
Is pointing and laughing at everything he sees,
He's climbing and throwing banana skins,
From the top of the tree in the city zoo.

We're going on a trip to the city zoo,
To visit all the animals there,
Some have fur and some have feathers,
Some have skin and some have hair,
No matter what the weather,
They all live together,
They all live together in the city zoo.
in the city zoo.

O once I had a little plum, it wasn't very big,
It wasn't red or green or blue, or pink like my pet pig,
It wasn't round or flat or square, my perfect purple plum,
A present for my old pal Paul, who popped it on his thumb,
Pppppppppp,

Peas, potatoes, parsley in a pot,
Pop a pair of peppers in and serve it piping hot.
Peaches, pears, persimmons, prunes And pomegranates too,
Popcorn and pistachios and pizza pie for two – 2x

7. FACE TO FACE

Words & Music © Fran Avni

I have two eyes, two eyebrows too,
Two ears, one nose, one chin,
Two lips one mouth and lots of teeth,
You'll see them when I grin.
I need my lips and tongue and teeth,
I need my cheeks and lungs to speak,
To whisper, talk, sing, cry or shout.
I take air in – I breathe air out.
And when I smile I stretch my lips,
In the middle of my face,
From ear to ear and cheek to cheek,
And everything's in place.
I reach my arms above my head,
I wave my hands about,
I bend my neck and I wiggle my hips,
And stick my elbows out.
I touch my knees and then my ankles,
And tap, tap, tap my toes,
And then I stand straight up again,
And wrinkle up my nose.

11. GOING ON VACATION

Words & Music © Fran Avni

We're taking a vacation,
We're going on a trip,
Not in a car or train or bus,
Not even in a ship.

We're flying in an airplane,
Far across the sea,
My mom my dad my sister Sue,
My brother Bob and me.

We're flying way up high,
We sit right near the wings,
Looking out at clouds—
What are those shiny things?

The forests and the mountains,
Look like tiny growing plants,
And down below the houses and the cars,
Look just like ants.

We're flying high as up we go,
It's really hard to stand,
We'll be so very happy,
When we get back down to land. 2x

19. WHEN DINOSAURS LIVED ON THE EARTH

Words & Music © Fran Avni

When dinosaurs lived on the earth,
Two hundred million years ago,
Some were fast and some were slow,
Two hundred million years ago.

Some ate plants and some ate meat,
They chewed it all with giant jaws,
They walked along on giant feet,
With giant paws and giant claws.

They had long necks and scaly tails,
They were much bigger than three whales,
Some had spikes and some had horns,
That made them look like unicorns.

When dinosaurs lived on the earth,
Two hundred million years ago,
They laid their eggs upon the sand,
Two hundred million years ago.

The dinosaurs lived on the earth,
Two hundred million years ago,
We'll never ever hear them roar -
'Cause they don't live here anymore.

Yellow lemons, bananas too.

Tangerines cantaloupes with orangey hue,

Blackberries spilling all over the plates.

Fabulous fresh fruit from far-off lands.
My fruit bowl's a rainbow, right here in my hands.

Melons, Kumquats, pineapples or grapes
So many colours and so many shapes
Long or short or thick or thin
Some come with peel and some come with skin

Some taste sour, tart or sweet,

My fruit bowl's a rainbow, right here in my hands.
